

Joint Commission Resources 2010 Behavioral Health Care Programs

Plan Now to Attend in 2010!

Location	Program Title	Dates	Product Code
San Ramon, California	Behavioral Health Care Accreditation Essentials This intensive, two-day program will provide you with a clear and comprehensive plan for achieving and maintaining accreditation status. Your guides will be two of The Joint Commission's most highly skilled and experienced surveyors and consultants.	February 23-24	EDU1014
Chicago, Illinois	Accreditation Summit Created so organizations could have a dialogue with The Joint Commission's executives and program leadership on significant accreditation topics, and receive the latest updates on Joint Commission standards and accreditation process. Includes a track dedicated to meeting the distinct needs of behavioral health care providers.	April 20-22	EDU1018
	Behavioral Health Care Standards Update What is new for 2011? Will your organization be prepared? Come and learn from The Joint Commission experts and surveyors about the accreditation standards and survey process for 2011.	November 10	EDU1041
	Annual Behavioral Health Care Conference THE premier conference addressing all aspects of behavioral health care. This not to be missed conference will provide a cross section of hot topics presented by nationally recognized experts that promises to exceed your expectations!	November 11-12	EDU1042
Waltham, Massachusetts	Behavioral Health Care Accreditation Essentials This intensive, two-day program will provide you with a clear and comprehensive plan for achieving and maintaining accreditation status. Your guides will be two of The Joint Commission's most highly skilled and experienced surveyors and consultants.	November 16-17	EDU1040
On Demand	Behavioral Health Care Accreditation Primer A basic seminar offering crucial information on the standards and accreditation process, delivered where you want it, when you want it, via your internet connection.	Jan. 1 – June 30	EDUVA1010

