

The Standards. Your access. Your way.

Today, it's all about access. That's why Joint Commission Resources is giving you more access solutions than ever. That includes the new E-dition online database, the powerful new Accreditation Manager Plus (AMP™) electronic toolkit, and the 2009 Comprehensive Accreditation Manuals.

1. 2009 Joint Commission E-dition

What it is: The new source for online access to The Joint Commission Standards and requirements.

How it works: E-dition is a powerful database that provides a central resource to the most up-to-date standards, and it lets you filter the standards that apply to your organization.

2. 2009 E-dition with AMP™

What it is: AMP is the electronic toolkit that helps your organization maintain continuous compliance. Now when you get AMP, you also get access to E-dition.

How it works: AMP helps prepare your team for your Periodic Performance Review, and provides a shared location for all related compliance information. That includes Plans of Action, and organizational notes.

3. 2009 Comprehensive Accreditation Manuals

What it is: Each manual is specific to a different type of organization. Your appropriate manual has all the information you need for continuous standards compliance.

How it works: Your staff can use the manual to reference all changes from The Joint Commission

Standards Improvement Initiative, the 2009 National Patient Safety Goals, and learn about The Joint Commission unannounced survey process.
