

Behavioral Health Care Accreditation: An Introduction to the Basics

February 13, 2009

Mary Cesare-Murphy, Ph.D.

Executive Director

Peggy Lavin, LCSW

Associate Director

Evelyn Choi, MS

Accreditation Specialist

Behavioral Health Accreditation Program

Behavioral Health Care Accreditation Program

Comprehensive Accreditation Manual for Behavioral Health Care

- ▶ Community-based Mental Health Services.
- ▶ Services for Children and Youth.
- ▶ Substance Abuse Treatment Services.
- ▶ Opioid Treatment Programs.
- ▶ Accrediting Behavioral Health Organizations since 1969.
- ▶ Over 1,800 Accredited Behavioral Health Care Organizations.
- ▶ Accredited organizations range from small single service to multiple services/programs providers.

Complex Organization Accreditation

- ▶ Provide services that are addressed in two or more accreditation manuals
- ▶ Examples:
 - Psychiatric hospital and residential treatment program
 - Home health care and In-home services to persons with developmental disabilities or mental health issues
 - Primary care ambulatory clinic with mental health care

Behavioral Health Care Accreditation Standards for Specific Programs and Settings

- Addictions
- Case management
- Corrections
- Crisis stabilization
- Family pres./wraparound
- Forensics
- Foster care
- Therapeutic foster care
- 24 Therapeutic Schools
- Therapeutic Day Schools
- Residential/Group Homes
- Out-patient
- Day Programs
- Transitional/supervised living
- Vocation Rehab.
- Outdoor/Wilderness
- Technology-based
- Opioid Treatment

Behavioral Health Care Accreditation Standards for Specific Populations

- ▶ Children and Youth
- ▶ Persons with Developmental Disabilities
- ▶ Persons receiving Addiction Treatment or Services
- ▶ Persons receiving Treatment for Opioid Addiction

Joint Commission Behavioral Health Care Surveyors

- ▶ Behavioral Health Professionals
- ▶ Training and experience matched to the services provided by the organization
- ▶ Social Workers, Psychologists, and Behavioral Health Administrators/Nurses

Joint Commission

Behavioral Health Care Standards Development

- ▶ Standards Represent National Consensus
- ▶ Expert Panels
- ▶ Professional and Technical Advisory Committee
- ▶ Web-based field reviews for all stakeholders
- ▶ Advisory Councils

Joint Commission Behavioral Health Care Standards Organization

▀ Standards

- Client-Focused Functions
 - Ethics, Rights and Responsibilities
 - Provision of Care, Treatment and Services
 - Medication Management
 - Infection Control
- Organization-Focused Functions
 - Improving Organizational Performance
 - Leadership
 - Environment of Care
 - Life Safety
 - Human Resources
 - Management of Information

Joint Commission

Behavioral Health Care Standards Organization

- ▶ Organization of Chapters
 - Standards
 - Rationale
 - Elements of Performance

Joint Commission

Accreditation Decision Process

- ▶ Scoring
- ▶ Requirements for Improvement
- ▶ Preliminary/Final Reports
- ▶ 45 or 60 Day Response
- ▶ Accreditation Decision

Tracer Methodology

- ▶ Method used by surveyors during on-site survey
- ▶ Follow course of care, treatment and services provided to a client
- ▶ Assess relationships among staff and functions
- ▶ Evaluate performance of processes relevant to the client

Resources for Accredited Organizations and Organizations Working Toward Accreditation

- ▶ Standards interpretation & applicability
 - ▶ 630-792-5900
- ▶ Introduction to mentor organizations
 - ▶ 630-792-5411
- ▶ Complementary conference calls
 - ▶ www.jointcommission.org/BHC
- ▶ Education programs
 - ▶ www.jcrinc.com
- ▶ Publications
 - www.jcrinc.com

Joint Commission

Behavioral Health Care Accreditation

What will it do for your organization?

- ▶ Demonstrates to the community the organization's commitment to quality and safety
- ▶ Provides an outline for leadership to set goals, plan services, determine staffing, distribute resources, and manage risk
- ▶ Supports a culture of excellence
- ▶ Integrates data use into daily operations
- ▶ Support board members in meeting their fiduciary responsibilities

Behavioral Health Care Accreditation: How to Apply for Accreditation

1. Request an Application for Accreditation.
2. Receive access to The Joint Commission's electronic application.
3. Complete the application.
4. Indicate in the application which month during the next 12 months you would like your initial on site survey to be scheduled.
5. Electronically submit your application.
6. Make a deposit of $1700 toward your accreditation fees.

For an estimate of survey fees, contact Peggy Lavin.

For a login/password, contact Evelyn Choi.

The Gold Seal of Approval™

Joint Commission Behavioral Health Care Accreditation

Mary Cesare-Murphy
Executive Director

mcesaremurphy@jointcommission.org

630/792-5790

Peggy Lavin

plavin@jointcommission.org

630/792-5411

Evelyn Choi

echoi@jointcommission.org

630/792-5866