

January 13, 2022

Dear Colleague:

In 2022, the Joint Commission communicated that the Direct Data Submission Platform (DDSP) would open January 3, 2023, for submission of CY2022 ORYX Performance Measurement data. However, we have elected to improve platform stability prior to reopening for CY2022 data submission. These efforts will delay opening the CY2022 platform until mid-February.

We will send a communication to all DDSP users in mid-February when the platform becomes available for CY2022 data submission.

The delay in opening for CY2022 data submission will also extend the data submission deadline for CY2022 data and will result in a delay for the opening of the DDSP for CY2023.

Modified Deadlines:

CY2022: eCQM deadline extended from March 15, 2023, to June 14, 2023

CY2022: Chart-abstracted deadline extended from April 30, 2023, to June 14, 2023

CY2023: Opening has been rescheduled from early May 2023 to mid-July 2023

An updated timeline will be available on our website:

<https://www.jointcommission.org/measurement/resources/> under “Supporting Materials” in the upcoming weeks.

Please Note:

- For newly accredited HAP/CAH/ALC organizations initially onboarding to the DDSP beginning with CY2022 or CY2023 data submission, the onboarding process is delayed. Newly accredited facilities will receive separate correspondence regarding timing of onboarding and data submission to the DDSP closer to the time of the platform opening.
- For existing organizations and users on the platform, non-data submission features within the platform (e.g., “Invite & Manage Users”, “Need Help?” resources, etc.) remain available during this time
- The DDSP Office Hours scheduled for February 7, 2023, is postponed to February 21st:

Additional Office Hours webinars to support DDSP users on the CY2022 and CY2023 platform will be provided.
